RAILROAD MUSEUM OF PENNSYLVANIA HOSTS PENNSYLVANIA PAST PLAYERS

Strasburg, Lancaster County, PA—History comes alive as The Pennsylvania Past Players interpret the Civil War era for visitors to the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania. The Railroad Museum's historical guests are scheduled to appear from 1:00 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. on Saturdays from June 26 through August 14, 2010, with the exception of July 3.

The Pennsylvania Past Players are a talented, and extensively trained, group of people who serve as interpreters and ambassadors of Pennsylvania's Civil War story and Underground Railroad heritage. They portray—through a living history experience—the women and children, townspeople, farmers, soldiers and public figures during these pivotal times in American history.

The Pennsylvania Past Players are sponsored by the Pennsylvania Department of Community & Economic Development, Cultural & Heritage Tourism Program, and the Pennsylvania Historical & Museum Commission.

The Commonwealth's official railroad museum, the world-class Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania is administered by the Pennsylvania Historical & Museum Commission, with the active support of the Friends of the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania.
